"The women in the College of Business continue to amaze me with their dedication to the University and especially our students. I am honored to work with such powerful and inspiring individuals. Today I celebrate the strong women who challenge those around them daily for the betterment of every mind they touch, and I am proud to be their leader."

"I am inspired by my female friends and colleagues and wonder where I would be without them. They are "in the arena" every day to borrow from Theodore Roosevelt's famous quote...they are the doer of good deeds, who lend themselves to worthy causes, have great devotions to each other, live with enthusiasm and if they fail, at least fail while daring greatly."
