LAFAYETTE

B.I. Moody III College of Business Administration

Master's of Business Administration program recognized by U.S. News and CEO Magazine

Considering an advanced degree? The University of Louisiana at Lafayette would be a good place to earn one, according to U.S. News & World Report and CEO Magazine.

B.I. Moody III College of Business Administration's MBA Program has been ranked 3rd in Louisiana among the 2023-2024 Best Graduate Schools- Part Time MBA by U.S. News & World Report.

"These rankings emphasize the quality education UL Lafayette offers to Masters Students in the classroom and online," said P. Robert Viguerie Jr., the B.I. Moody III College of Business Administration's Associate Dean for Graduate and Executive Programs. "In our courses, students are exposed to business theory, academic concepts, and real-world experiences that apply to their current jobs and careers, even before graduating."

Designed for prospective students looking to further their education beyond college, the Best Graduate Schools rankings evaluate programs in a variety of disciplines, including business, education, engineering, law, medicine, and nursing.

CEO Magazine ranked B.I. Moody III College of Business Administration's MBA program in Tier 1 and as a top online program. Using a ranking system entirely geared and weighted towards fact-based criteria, CEO Magazine aims to cut through the noise and provide potential students with a performance benchmark for those schools under review.
